

Programme

Day One 7th May 2014

08.30 - 09.30 Registration and Coffee

09.30 - 09.40 Opening address by Chair

Professor David Cooke,

Professor of Forensic Clinical Psychology, Glasgow Caledonian University, UK and the University of Bergen, Norway

09.40 - 10.30 The history and mystery of the concept of psychopathy

Professor David Cooke,

Professor of Forensic Clinical Psychology, Glasgow Caledonian University, UK and the University of Bergen, Norway

10.30 - 11.20 The Comprehensive Assessment of Psychopathic Personality —
German Translation and validation

Professor Denis Köhler

Professor of Psychology at the University of Applied Sciences Düsseldorf, Germany

11.20 - 11.30 QUESTION AND ANSWERS

11.30 - 12.00 Coffee and Poster Presentation

12.00 - 12.50 Psychopathy and risk for offending

PD Dr. Andreas Mokros,

Quality and Research Representative, University Hospital of Psychiatry, Zurich, Switzerland

12.50 - 13.00 QUESTION AND ANSWERS

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch Break and Poster Presentation

14.00 - 14.50 Treatment; Lessons from the Offender Treatment - what works? - literature

Professor Friedrich Lösel,

Institute of Criminology, University of Cambridge, UK and Institute of Psychology University of Erlangen-Nuremberg, Germany

14.50 - 15.40 Neuroimaging work on children with psychopathic tendencies

Dr Stephane De Brito,

Independent Research Fellow Birmingham Fellow, School of Psychology, UK

15.40 - 15.50 QUESTION AND ANSWERS

15.50 - 16.20 Coffee and Poster Presentation

16.20 - 17.10 Psychopathy and cognitive-emotion specificities: the role of different factors

Professor Thierry H Pham,

Centre de Recherche en Défense Sociale, and UMonS University, Belgium

17.10 - 17.20 QUESTION AND ANSWERS

17.20 - 17.30 Chairman's closing remarks