

All you need to know about Irritable Bowel Syndrome in one day Conference 2014

About the conference

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT IBS IN ONE DAY

We are delighted to invite you to this exciting CPD accredited conference presented by a panel of leading international experts on IBS.

Irritable Bowel Syndrome is a common functional disorder with high reported prevalence rates throughout the world. However it is often misunderstood and misdiagnosed. Although diet is important in this condition, a whole variety of other factors are involved in the production of symptoms and a full understanding of these can result in more effective management resulting in greater patient satisfaction.

This conference will bring together a group of top clinicians, scientists and researchers with an interest in IBS and other functional GI disorders to foster greater awareness of IBS, and update existing knowledge resulting in ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT IBS IN ONE DAY.

This conference will be held on the 27th of February 2014 at the Hilton Manchester Deansgate hotel and is of great relevance to practicing gastroenterologists, general practitioners and doctors in training, counsellors, occupational therapists, nurses and paediatricians, primary care physicians, psychologists, sociologists, and other health care providers interested in a complete update on IBS, scientists and academicians interested in investigation of these conditions, members of health policy and regulatory organisations
